Dweik renews call on Abbas to allow special PLC session on Aqsa events

[15/03/2010 - 04:39 PM]

GAZA, (PIC)-- Dr. Aziz Al-Dweik, the speaker of the Palestinian legislative council, has renewed his call on Mahmoud Abbas, the Fatah leader and the PA chief whose term in office expired over a year ago but still rules in the West Bank, to allow the PLC to convene in a special session.

Dweik told a press conference held in his office in Ramallah on Monday that the situation was very serious in the occupied city of Jerusalem and the Palestinian legitimacy should not be obstructed.

He said that the proposed PLC session would be also allocated for accomplishing inter-Palestinian reconciliation and reactivating legitimate institutions prior to the Arab summit.

The speaker elaborated on the Israeli violations in occupied Jerusalem ever since its occupation back in 1967, noting that Israel demolished 24,000 houses in the holy city and built in their place 60,000 housing units for its settlers.

Dweik asked the Arab summit in Libya to adopt a binding strategy that would block the judaization of Jerusalem and to encourage its indigenous inhabitants' to stay in the city.
